

Community Grant Application Chapter Recommendation Form

Grant Details

The Carolinas Credit Union Foundation is awarding non-profits selected by credit union Chapters up to $2,500 Community Grants, matching fundraising efforts. That means that if a Chapter raises $2,500 for a local non-profit, the Foundation will match that amount! These grants are for dedicated community non-profits and furthers the credit union philosophy of “people helping people.”

Community Grants will support youth initiatives including those focused on:

Improving: social and economic conditions for vulnerable communities.

Feeding: solutions for food insecurity.

Healing: opportunities for those in hospitals and outpatient facilities and overcoming mental health challenges.

Teaching: financial and economic principles.
